

Somerset Masons support local Hospices

Following the enormous success of last November's Grand Variety Show at the Weston Playhouse, cheques have now been presented to Hospices within the region from the funds raised. This has been a combined effort with additional support from the Freemasons' Grand Charity, demonstrating the commitment on the part of freemasons towards the support of hospice care locally and the importance of its role within the community.

Here we see David Perkins, Secretary of the Lodge of Brotherly Love with Derek Marpole of Corinthian Pillar presenting cheques in the value of £3400 to one of the nursing staff at St Margaret's Hospice, Yeovil, with J Roach of Progressive Science and K Whittle of Brotherly Love in the background.

Here we see Graham Roberts, Harry Roberts and Derek Porter of Wessex Lodge presenting cheques in the value of £2800 to Gill Young of Weston Hospicecare

Here we see Martin Brooks and Bob Swift of Wraxall Lodge together with Provincial Information Officer John Cole presenting £2175 to Louise Turner of Wraxall Children's Hospice

Here we see James Holyday, Sidney French, Roger Seaton and Nigel Handbury of Taunton Deane Lodge presenting £3800 to Andrew Punter of St Margaret's Hospice, Taunton.
